This decision corresponds to the Fair Services Directorate, by mutual agreement, where appropriate, with the companies that eventually take part in the execution of the works. In the same way, the rest of the specific technical regulations contained in these General Rules for Participation of the event (prohibited activities, non-occupation of corridors, fire prevention, electrical installations, etc.) will complement the generic risk prevention measures inasmuch as their compliance is aimed at guaranteeing the safety of people and facilities. Likewise, all concurrent entrepreneurs are responsible for complying with and making their contractors, subcontractors and / or self-employed persons comply with the legislation on the prevention of occupational risks that is applicable to the activities carried out by them, including the information and instructions provided by FYCMA that they are detailed in these General Participation Rules. For this reason, prior to the start of the assembly work, all those companies that, on behalf of the Exhibitor, carry out work or activities in the contracted space, must complete, sign and submit the corresponding form to FYCMA. The assembly work may not begin without the prior completion and sending of the aforementioned Protocol.

13.2 Public order and maximum capacity

During periods of assembly, celebration and disassembly, the venue is taking care for monitoring general fairgrounds, access control, outdoor surveillance and security, general and preventive for public order and fire safety or emergencies of any nature. The venue will manage a surveillance service throughout the Halls during the visiting hours to avoid any misbehavior.

13.3 General security

During periods of assembly, celebration and dismantling, FYCMA is taking care for monitoring general eventgrounds, access control, outdoor surveillance and security, general and preventive for public order and fire safety or emergencies of any nature. In any case, it is not a security service directed to the goods exhibited or the particular goods of each exhibitor, so the Organizer and FYCMA will not be responsible for the private property owned by the exhibitors, their employees or subcontractors.

The Organizer and FYCMA will not be responsible of robbery or theft of materials and objects left on the stands, or damages that may occur during periods of assembly, exhibition and dismantling. However, the Organizer will give their support for the resolution or processing of the report to the Police.

Each exhibitor is responsible for any valuable objects that may be on its stand and must take care of them during the assembly period, the celebration opening hours to the public and dismantling period. The Organizer and FYCMA will not be responsible for the surveillance of the stands, so in the event that an exhibitor would need a surveillance service of its stand, will have the possibility to hire such service through the exhibitor catalogue or carry it out themselves. In the case that the exhibitor wishes to provide its own security for its stand must previously request it to FYCMA Security Department, through the Organizer. The authorization, accompanying a letter of standing will have to be delivered to the Security Staff in the pavillion with the National Identity Document photocopy. The Organizer will manage a surveillance service throughout the Halls during the visiting hours to avoid any misbehavior. An identical service will be performed at night. Exhibitors will have to monitor their stands during public visiting hours. It is forbidden to stay in the stands after the opening hours established for Exhibitors with the only exception of a special permission from the Organizer for very justifiable reasons. The Organizer and Security staff will realize all the necessary inspection visits to ensure that safety standards and monitoring are fulfilled by all exhibitors, and at any time it may take appropriate measures to prevent accidents or situations that may harm people or things.

13.4 Contracting private security for stands

During the entire event, FYCMA provides general surveillance of the Trade Fairs and Congress Centre (entrances and external surveillance) and internal surveillance of the pavilions of a preventative and deterrent nature for social order and security against fires and emergencies of any kind. Security surveillance is not directed at the individual belongings of the exhibitor. FYCMA, therefore, is not responsible for the theft of goods or equipment deposited in each booth, nor for the damages incurred to objects, samples, personal effects and/or assembly and exhibition materials, before, during or after the event. FYCMA will not be held responsible for vehicles parked inside or outside the facilities, nor for their contents. The centre operates a closed-circuit video surveillance system of indoor and outdoor areas with 24- hour recording. Such recordings may only be viewed at the request of State Security forces and in accordance with the terms set forth in law.

13.5 Emergency actuation

FYCMA provides, throughout the fair period, the general surveillance of the fairgrounds in terms of fire safety. The FYCMA Safety and Self-Protection Directorate is responsible for the management and direction of emergencies (medical-sanitary, fire, threats of any kind and natural catastrophes), in the context of the Self-Protection Plan that governs the fairgrounds. In these situations, exhibitors, their contractors and / or subcontractors and their dependent personnel are subject to the FYCMA Emergency Action Plan, under the guidelines of the FYCMA Safety and Self-Protection Directorate, which will always act in coordination, collaboration and under the dependence of the State Security Forces.

13.6 Not corridors occupation – Packaging

The cleaning services of FYCMA will remove any object deposited in these areas without the right to claim damages. During the event, no sample, decoration, crate or object in general must be placed in the corridors or other areas and the exhibited objects as well as construction materials for the stand must remain within the contracted space.

Art. 24 Regulations for sustainable management

The sustainability of an event requires minimizing its direct environmental impact and leaving a positive and lasting legacy in the local community of the organisation and its events. In order to meet sustainability targets during events, we have outlined below a list of good practices to consider whilst participating in an event:

24.1. Environmental administration

1. When hiring suppliers (transport, assembly, design etc..) prioritise those who adhere to good environmental practices.

- Where possible, choose removable and reusable stands and/or recycled materials that can be reused in other exhibitions.
- Use LED lights in the stands whenever possible.
- Choose to send invitations through electronic formats.
- Use the available energy resources efficiently.
- Respect the good environmental and energy practices carried out by FYCMA.
- The majority of the waste that is generated must be deposited in its corresponding container for removal and recycling.
- Regarding energy saving:

•Adjust the temperature correctly by adjusting the thermostat to the values recommended by RITE (21°C maximum in winter, 26°C in summer).

•Choose equipment with energy saving certification when possible.

24.2. Communication and Marketing

- Encourage the reduction of print and graphic materials by advertising online and in an electronic format.
- Ensure that signage and other graphic elements make the most of paper (avoid white margins, etc.) and adhere to recommendations for universal accessibility.

24.3. Social Responsibility

Consider universal accessibility when planning the stand and customer service (both in terms of the personnel hired and printed material and visual presentations). Ensure that the working conditions of all contracted persons comply with current legislation (contract, salaries, working hours, break times, etc.).
